RELATING TO THE INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Mr. Ratliff offered the following resolution:

Whereas, At the general election on November 4, 1930, Section 5 of Article III of the Constitution of Texas was amended so as to hereafter read as follows, to wit:

"The Legislature shall meet every two years at such time as may be provided by law and at other times when convened by the Governor. When convened in regular session, the first thirty days thereof shall be devoted to the introduction of bills and resolutions, acting upon emergency appropriations, passing upon the confirmation of the recess appointees of the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided that during the succeeding thirty days of the Regular Session of the Legislature the various committees of each house shall hold hearings to consider all bills and resolutions and other matters then pending; and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor; provided further, that during the following sixty days the Legislature shall act upon such bills and resolutions as may be then pending and upon such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided, however, either house may otherwise determine its order of business by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its membership"; and

Whereas, By rules adopted at the convening of the present session of the Legislature, said constitutional amendment was in effect set aside and it was declared in order to introduce bills and resolutions during the first sixty days of the session, providing, however, bills may be introduced and considered after the first sixty days by a two-thirds vote; and

Whereas, The first sixty days of this session have expired and at the expiration thereof approximately sixteen hundred bills and resolutions had been introduced for consideration by this Legislature; and

Whereas, It will be an impossibility for each of said bills and resolutions to receive consideration at the hands of the Legislature, but notwithstanding such fact, the flow of bills into the hopper has not ceased, thereby further crowding the calendar and creating confusion in the consideration of measures pending, all of which is contrary to the spirit of said constitutional amendment and contrary to the wishes of a majority of the people of this State, as expressed at the ballot; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this House, that the members thereof should refrain from introducing any more bills during the remainder of this session, except in cases of imperative public necessity, and such local bills as are absolutely necessary in the proper administration of purely local affairs.

Signed—Ratliff, Adams of Jasper.

The resolution was read second time.

Mr. Beck moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. Sullivant moved to table the resolution, and the motion to table was lost.

Question recurring on the motion to refer the resolution, it was lost.
